Navneet's Q2FY17 results were a strong beat to our estimates with 46% revenue growth and 70% earnings growth. Margin improvement of 740bps was on account of lower RM cost and better efficiency. Publishing business is well on track for 17% growth in FY17 aided by Syllabus change in Gujarat and Maharashtra, introduction of new titles for Children's book in English and Govt sales of Rs120m. Stationery segment is growing albeit slowly @11% due to intense competition in the domestic space. Though the deal for Acquisition of Encyclopaedia Britannica India (EBI) business is yet to be completed, we anticipate it to be through by December and start contributing from Q4FY17 (refer page 4 for details). EBI India acquisition will give Navneet a straight 6% growth boost in revenues for FY18 (considering 3-4 months consolidation in FY17) which is significant contribution considering the 11% CAGR growth experienced by the company for FY11-FY16 period. We like the deal as Navneet is almost debt free currently and is expected to generate cash flows in excess of Rs1.5bn for FY17.

In our view, Navneet was hit hard to the tune of ~Rs 450-500m revenue loss in its publishing business for FY16 due to drought in most districts of Maharashtra. Stationery business too was adversely impacted due to intense domestic competition. However, FY17 have started on a strong footing and we expect 21% earnings growth over FY16-FY18E period. We also like Navneet for its consistent strong return ratios and ~50% payout. We revise our price target to Rs132 rolling it to Dec-17 implying 18x PER Dec-17 (earlier TP Rs124). Maintain BUY and the most preferred stock in Education Sector.

Management has also announced a buyback of Rs582m (4.65m shares) at a price of Rs125 which accounts for almost 1.95% of total paid up capital. The dividend distribution policy is maintained at 25% which would be reviewed at an appropriate time.

- Publishing segment continues to generate steady cash: Navneet enjoys strong positioning in the Supplementary and Children and General books segment in western India and is expected to generate average EBIDTA of Rs 2.1bn/annum.. Traction in eSense due to introduction of cloud based products and segregation of online and offline teams to create focus and achieve momentum in sales.
- Stationery business buoyed by strong exports: Stationery business which was struggling for entire FY16 due to intense domestic competition has been helped by strong exports to US in H1FY17. Efficiency benefits and lower RM cost aided margins. Stationery business reported 14% YoY growth in revenues for H1FY17 to Rs2.7bn but more importantly 36% growth in EBIDTA to Rs423m.

Navneet announces to acquire EBI publishing business in India

Navneet is looking to seal deal to acquire the publishing business from the Encyclopaedia Britannica India Pvt Ltd (EBI) which owns the content library of curriculum books, reference books, dictionaries and Thesaurus in India. The term sheet is yet to be signed; however the deal size is expected between Rs850 to 900m.

About EBI: EBI is one of the India’s leading Pre-K12 curricular educational publishers that started publishing operations in India in 2009. It has an extensive product catalogue comprising educational, instructional and information products & technology solutions. These products are for CBSE, ICSE and other schools following CBSE curriculum. Britannica India’s Curriculum Division designs and develops educational products for the Indian region used by nearly 5 million students across India and Indian schools abroad.

Under the agreement, the current Britannica business unit will become an independent company with Navneet and will realize considerable synergies with Navneet’s larger Indian group. The company will market Britannica’s existing Indian-specific curriculum titles, such, “Know for Sure” and “The English Channel” as well as develop new titles under Britannica’s brand, editorial supervision and guide for 7 years.
